

ST. ANDREW'S BODY TO TIGHTEN WIRES

Brotherhood, in Convention
Here, Plans Greater Concentration of Members' Efforts.

The Thirtieth Tridocesan Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew is in session at the Church of the Ascension today, and will continue until 4 o'clock when a cathedral service for men will be held in Bethlehem Chapel at the Cathedral Close by the Rev. C. C. Pierce, of Philadelphia. The convention began yesterday with an address of welcome by Bishop Harding. There are 150 delegates to the convention.

The problem before the meeting is that of concentration of the work. Heretofore there has been too much wasted energy in the work of the order because of the lack of concentration, and the members of the convention will put their best efforts to eliminate this.

Following the opening session yesterday the officers for the year were elected as follows: O. R. Singleton, of Washington, president; Commodore William H. Beecher, of Annapolis, first vice president; Edwin Brown, of Centerville, second vice president; Earl Carson, secretary and treasurer; John Hodges, Walter B. Weirich, Arthur Hodges and J. Dolph, Jr., all of Baltimore; Colley W. Bell, R. N. Nash, and Richard Goodie, all of Washington; Col. W. H. Gillan, of Centerville; Dr. Bryce Goldborough, of Cambridge, Md., and Thomas W. Donaldson, of Elbridge, Md., members of the executive committee.

Communion Held.
The corporate communion was held today in the Church of the Ascension. Bishop Harding was the celebrant. At 11 o'clock special brotherhood services were held in all the Episcopal churches of the city.

The usual first Sunday services were held today in St. Patrick's Church when the League of the Good Shepherd attended 8 o'clock mass in a body. Communion was received at this service and Mr. Russell delivered the sermon. The league will meet again at 12 o'clock this evening when Mr. Russell will deliver another sermon. The sermon will be followed by the benediction and the blessed sacrament.

Solemn High Mass was celebrated at 11 o'clock by the Rev. James A. Smyth. The sanctuary choir under the direction of E. Mills Kirby gave a special program. A special musical service will be held tonight in the First Baptist Church at 8 o'clock. The quartet choir will sing "O Come Let Us Sing," and Miss Noack will sing "In Dreams I've Heard the Seraphs Sing" with a violin solo by Mr. Howard.

Bryan at Columbia.
Secretary of State Bryan will deliver his lecture on "The Larger Life" at the Columbia Theater this afternoon at 8 o'clock before a meeting arranged under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society of the District of Columbia. The lecture is one of a series of six which

Visitor to Capital Must Walk and Walk To Keep Self Alive

There's a man in Washington today who has to walk twelve hours each day whether he wants to or not. If he doesn't his blood won't circulate, and he says he'll die in consequence.

His name is Albert Hoffman, and since July, 1910, he has been tramping continuously, always fearful that something may prevent his daily strolls. He will turn the home of the Columbia Turn Verein this afternoon, and then will continue his journey to New York, the terminus of his present plans.

Hoffman, who is about sixty years old, had a building fall on him during the San Francisco earthquake. When he got out of the hospital, his blood refused to circulate. He took up walking as a remedy, and since then he has had to tramp at least twelve hours out of each twenty-four.

will be delivered Sunday afternoons in theater meetings.

One of the features of the meeting will be the large male chorus under the direction of Percy S. Foster, assisted by William E. Braithwaite, superintendent of music for the Christian Endeavor Society. The Porter Male Quartet of Washington will sing several selections. The invocation will be said by the Rev. George E. Miller and the reading by Alfred E. Barrows. Dr. Samuel H. Woodrow will pronounce the benediction.

The Rev. J. Harry Dunham, pastor of the Western Methodist Episcopal Church, will deliver a sermon on "Character Study of Stephen," tonight at 8 o'clock.

"From Prison to Throne" will be the title of the sermon to be delivered in the Foundry Methodist Episcopal Church this evening by the Rev. W. R. Wedderburn. The sermon is one of a series of sermons on "Tragedy and Pathos in the Book of Books."

The Rev. S. Townsend Weaver, of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, will deliver a sermon on "Jesus in the Sum of the City." The sermon will be profusely illustrated with lantern slides. "An Evening of Poems" will be held tonight in the Metropolitan Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church by the Rev. James Sheen Montgomery. Dr. Montgomery will read a collection of his favorite poems, and show their relation to the everyday happenings of life, religious and otherwise.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 6.—Because of malignant fever breaking out among the crew of the cruiser Colorado, stationed at Guaymas, the vessel has been ordered to San Francisco to be placed in quarantine.

MGR. CERRETTI MAY RECEIVE ELEVATION

Former Secretary to Legation
Here Considered as Legate,
According to Report.

Monsignor Cerretti, recently relieved as secretary of the papal legation in this city, where he has been stationed for several years, is being considered by Pope Pius as a capable prelate for elevation to the church diplomatic position of papal legate according to information of an authoritative source received in Washington today.

With the assignment at the Washington legation of the Catholic Church of Monsignor Misurata as secretary to succeed Monsignor Cerretti the impression that the Vatican intends to regard the United States as a far more important church diplomatic post than ever is corroborated. Not because the new secretary is more highly esteemed at the Vatican as a diplomat is the impression substantiated, but because the Pope intends in all probability merely to add another diplomat to the personnel of the local post.

It is probable that Monsignor Cerretti will return to Washington as auditor of the legation in event the Pontiff does not at this time see fit to elevate him to the position of legate. One of the two actions will be taken. Monsignor Cerretti will sail for Rome about May 10 and will spend at least two months at the headquarters city of the church.

Monsignor Misurata, now secretary of the legation, is scarcely past his thirtieth year. Secretary of the Washington legation is the second diplomatic position to which he has been assigned by the Vatican. Until coming to Washington he was secretary of the church legation in the Philippines. There are two grades of secretaries and two grades of auditors in the church diplomatic service. Monsignor Misurata's assignment here promotes him from second secretary to first secretary.

Monsignor Cerretti has been first auditor and acted as secretary of the legation. Either Pope Pius will send Monsignor Cerretti back to Washington, or elevate him to the position of legate and send him to some other country and send some other prelate to take the place of auditor of the American legation.

Committee Praised for Entertainment's Success

Col. S. B. Stratton, Miss Marie A. Peterson, A. V. Casanova, Miss Ethel Wolfe, R. R. Groomer, and others are being congratulated today on the success of the entertainment they gave at the Pennsylvania Club meeting last night.

Robert La Naire concluded the program with some interesting slight-of-hand work.

ANACOSTIA GIRL IS FOUND IN HOSPITAL

Lillian Hayes, Missing for Four Days,
Is Located by Police in Sick Bed—Flower Growers of Suburb Enter Their Blooms in New York Exhibition.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU.
ANACOSTIA, D. C., APRIL 6.

Lillian Hayes, sixteen years old, who disappeared from her home in Minnesota avenue April 1, has been found in Providence Hospital. When she left home she asked her mother for a card ticket, merely saying she had business in the city, but when she did not return Mrs. Hayes became worried and a search was begun by the Police Department. The Anacostia police learned yesterday that Miss Hayes had been taken ill after reaching the city and that she had gone to Providence Hospital for treatment.

The girl is much better today, and she will be able to return to her home in a day or two.

The third international flower show, to be held in New York city the present week, will be attended by Anacostia flower growers as well as by a delegation of florists from the city. Adolphus Gude, the manager of the show, tomorrow morning for the show, and William F. Gude, of the city, is there already. He left yesterday, Frederick H. Kramer, whose hothouses cover large area in Anacostia, will also attend.

The remains of Benjamin N. Estep, for whom a funeral service was conducted this afternoon at his late home, 228 Chester street, will be removed tomorrow morning to Hughesville, Charles county, Md., where the Rev. Dr. Smith, the rector of Trinity P. E. Church, will officiate at the last rites. The service today was conducted by the Rev. Willard G. Davenport, rector of the Emmanuel P. E. Church, of Anacostia. The body will be interred in the church cemetery at Hughesville.

WANT EFFICIENCY? LET PSYCHIC GET IT

You Can Increase Potato Crop and Win Love, Says
Prof. Munsterberg.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 6.—Do you want to make love better?

Do you want to be a better salesman? Do you want to be a better captain on an ocean liner?

Do you want to make better marriages? Do you want to raise more potatoes on your patch of ground than ever before?

If so, then you must "get psychologically correct." At least that is what Prof. Hugo Munsterberg, of Harvard, states in his new book, "Psychology and Industrial Efficiency." Psychology is going to work wonders in the industrial world, according to the professor. It is going to take that man who has been working in a round hole, and put him in a square hole, where he belongs.

The professor also argues that industrial difficulties would be reduced to a minimum and that working people would do better work if they were put through a course of psychological training. He advocates the establishment of a Government bureau for applied psychology, with special reference to the psychology of commerce and industry.

LEAVES SICK BED TO HANG HIMSELF

Wealthy New Jersey Man Uses
Bed Clothing to Commit
Self-Destruction.

NESHANTIC, N. J., April 6.—For several days Calvin Corie, eighty-four years old, a wealthy resident of this city, had been ill and confined to his room. Yesterday morning he surprised his niece, Miss Deborah Corie, by appearing at the breakfast table. She congratulated him on his improved health. After a hearty breakfast Mr. Corie said:

"I think I will go to my room now and rest. Do not let any one disturb me." Later Miss Corie heard piercing screams. She hurried to her uncle's room and found one of the servants in a faint. Mr. Corie was hanging to his old fashioned four-poster bed. He had knotted one end of the spread clothes-making for many years. It has the prestige of quality and stands for style.

KUPPENHEIMER SPRING CLOTHES POPULAR WITH WASHINGTON MEN

PROVE BIGGER SELLERS THAN EVER
Grosner's, 1013 Pa. Ave. N. W.,
Headquarters for Kuppenheimer
Clothes in Washington.

A large number of Washington men and young men believe in Kuppenheimer clothes. And this number is becoming larger each year.

The reason is easily explained. The wearer of a Kuppenheimer suit knows that the amount of thought and care put into the making of Kuppenheimer clothes relieves him of all thought about their style, fit and wear. He is comfortable in mind as well as in body.

The styles this year in spring Kuppenheimer clothes include some brand-new effects as timely as the calendar; they are sure to impress you; and some staple styles that seem never to lose their popularity.

Kuppenheimer tailoring is famous, among those who know, as the refinement of specialized skill. The name has been a recognized leader in good clothes-making for many years. It has the prestige of quality and stands for style.

However much or little you may know about clothes, you can safely trust the name—Kuppenheimer—because it stands for guaranteed clothes—maker-backed clothes—clothes that must and will satisfy you in every point.
